SIVANANDA YOGA IN THE HIMALAYAS

The European Sivananda Yoga Centres have organised yoga teacher training courses in India since 2006. Our two course locations in Rudraprayag and Uttarkashi in the Indian state of Uttarakhand are each situated on a tributary to the Ganges. The area carries the spiritual thought currents of generations of pilgrims who walked and prayed in these pristine natural surroundings.

"How charming is the Himalayan scenery! How sweet is Mother Ganga! How soothing and elevating are their vibrations! How soul-stirring is the company of the Yogins!" - Swami Sivananda

RUDRAPRAYAG, UTTARAKHAND

Rudraprayag is an ancient pilgrimage town (20,000 inhabitants) at the point of confluence of the Alaknanda and Mandakini, which are both tributaries to the River Ganges. It is situated at an altitude of 890 m, 370 km away from Delhi. Hotel Monal Resort is located 3 km from Rudraprayag, on 3 acres (1.2 ha) of pristine land, surrounded on three sides by the lesser Himalayan Range. Rooms (1–3 beds) with private bathroom.

UTTARKASHI, UTTARAKHAND

Sivananda Kutir is located at an altitude of 1,352 m near the village of Netala, 8 km north of Uttarkashi. Uttarkashi is well known for its community of Sadhus and Swamis who live in various ashrams along the Ganges, about half way between Rishikesh and Gangotri, one of the four sources of the Ganges. Swami Vishnudevananda founded the ashram for secluded Sadhana amidst the inspiring beauty of Ganga and Himalayas. The Sivananda Kutir is an ideal location for the ATTC. Daily pujas are conducted by a local priest in the ashram's South Indian style Siva Temple.
